

Main Room

Panel Discussion:

Discussants take a seat at the table and everybody in the room can see and hear them.

Podium:

Everybody in the room can see and hear the person who stands at the podium.

As a participant, please take a seat somewhere in the middle of the room for the opening speech, project results, keynote, panel discussion and the final statement.

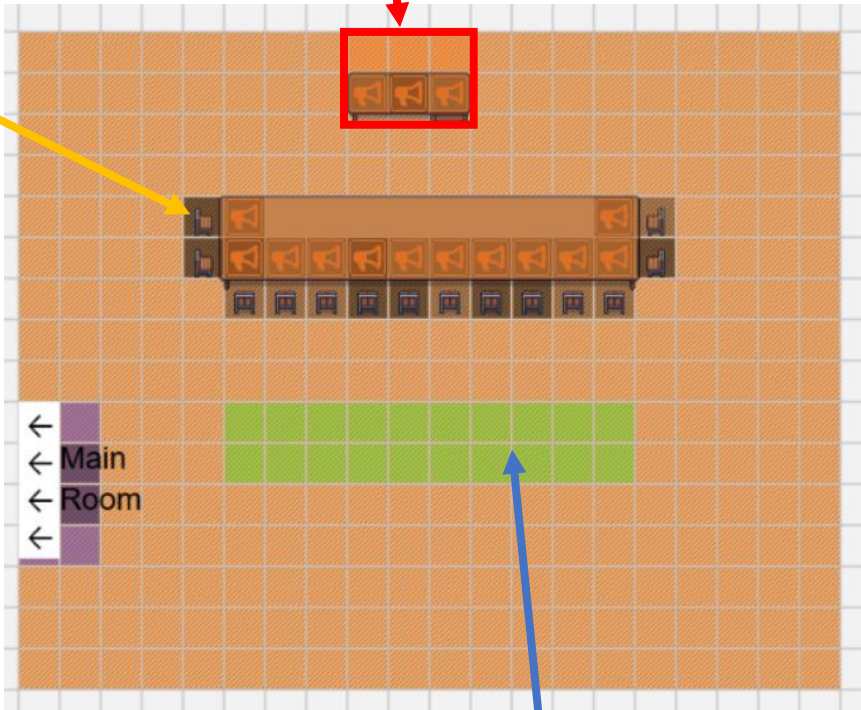

When you enter the FRIEND-SHIP conference space, you start in this green area.

Workshop

As the workshop leader, stand here, everybody in the room can see and hear you.

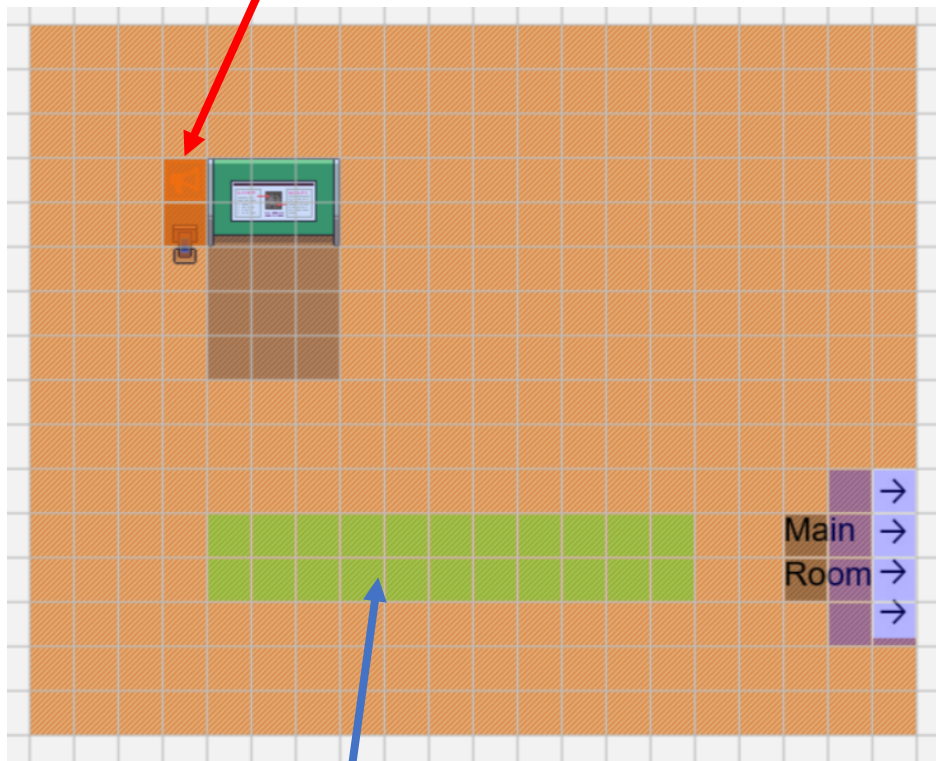

As a participant, take a seat at the table. When you make a step forward onto the table, everybody in the room can hear and see you.

When you enter the room, you start in this green area.

Poster Session

The author of the poster stands behind the podium on a spotlight so that everybody can hear and see him or her. When you are close enough to the podium, you can ask questions. The author should repeat the question, so that everybody in the room, knows what he or she is talking about.

When you enter the room, you start in this green area. Go towards the poster, then press "x" to open the poster.
